

Greetings from Bolivia!

I realize that you just heard from us not long ago, but we have been asked by CBM to send you this additional update, because of a need we have in our family right now.

This past year while we have been in Bolivia, our 10 year old son, Pedro has been attending Carachipampa Christian School here in Cochabamba. CCS is run by SIM, another missionary organization that works here in Bolivia, and has missionary children attending.

As you may know, we first met Pedro when our family went on a short-term missions trip to Mozambique in 2001. At that time Pedro was 17 months old and had just arrived at the orphanage where we were volunteering.

Pedro at Carachipampa School

When we first met him, Pedro was suffering from severe malnutrition, and had suffered from chronic ear infections resulting in repeated burst ear drums until he was 3, which hindered his language acquisition. While Pedro has been making good progress this past year at Carachipampa, the school has told us that in order for him to continue at CCS next year, he needs the help of a full-time educational assistant, who would be able to work alongside of him in the classroom. The teachers are always telling us that Pedro is a joy to have in the classroom, always has a good attitude, but he needs more individual help.

And so CBM is looking for a person who would be willing to come to Bolivia for at least one year to work with Pedro, alongside of his teacher at Carachipampa. This person would need to be college age or older, have English as their first language, and an interest in working with children. They would work with Pedro in the classroom setting, although he would have his own program that would be tailored to his needs.

This position would offer the opportunity to work in a cross-cultural mission setting here in Bolivia, where we have a team of CBM staff working. Cochabamba is a beautiful city, situated in the heart of South America, nestled in the foothills of the Andes mountains.

If you are interested in applying for this position, or know someone that might be, please contact us at the email address below, or Sharlene Craig at scraig@cbmin.org. Also, if you or your church would like to contribute to the budget of an educational assistant, please contact CBM.

We would appreciate your prayers for Pedro, that God would provide the person that he needs to help him continue to make progress in his schooling.
