

FUNDRAISING MENU

Are you hungry for change? It doesn't take a lot of money. It just takes some action.

Browse this fundraising menu for practical things you can do to raise money for The Sharing Way's food security projects.

Entrées

- As a church, build a food tower for a month and donate the food to a local food bank.
BIG it UP!: Match the cost of each item and donate the money.
- Have a Poverty Meal. Serve a special, simple meal (eg. rice & beans, soup), charge $10-$20 per plate and donate the money.
- Have a family movie, documentary or games night. Serve healthy snacks made from scratch. Donate the money you raise.
- Set up a line of toonies around your church and invite church members and people from the community to donate their toonies to this line. Set a goal of one kilometre.
- Have a Used Book Sale: Ask all your friends, relatives and church members to donate their old books. Advertise your book sale by means of posters and flyers. If there are leftovers, you can always give them to a library, shelter or school.
- Your change can change a life. Have people collect their spare change for a month. At the end of the month collect all the donations for The Sharing Way.

Beverages

- Collect the money you spend on coffee/tea for a month and donate it.
- Drink tap water. Donate the money you would have spent on bottled water.
- Sell lemonade, fresh juice, milkshakes, fruit smoothies and other beverages at church, school, or a community centre.
