

INSTRUCTIONS:

Women around the world bear responsibility for so much and yet often do not have access to education. The words on this African woman's head represent all the things she must be responsible for within her family. As you colour each of these words, think of ways we can help empower her to make life better not just for herself, but also her children and the whole community.

