

Bring Hope Around the World

We know your church wants to make a difference this Christmas! Together, your congregation can give a gift where it's most needed, shining as a witness to the real-life Good News of Jesus for the hope and healing of the world.

Refugees

The difficult decision to leave one's home country often comes after a peace, security, and opportunity have turned to violence, a lack of essential resources, threats of danger, and traumatizing experiences. For refugees fleeing to Cyprus and the Greek island of Lesbos, living conditions continue to be challenging.

With so many people arriving, government systems are strained and unreliable. Many landlords prefer not to rent to refugees, and unstable housing means refugees are unable to collect government benefits towards food or living expenses. Basics necessities are difficult to attain, and displaced people struggle to maintain a sense of dignity.

What can be done to help?

All4Aid's care centers, in partnership with CBM, provide essential services like laundry, showers, hygiene supplies, and food. They also offer sewing machines and a free clothing shop, allowing visitors to choose with dignity. Since many are unable to work, the centers create spaces for socializing, fostering community, and building emotional resilience.

Bring Hope Around the World

We know your church wants to make a difference this Christmas! Together, your congregation can give a gift where it's most needed, shining as a witness to the real-life Good News of Jesus for the hope and healing of the world.

Refugees

The difficult decision to leave one's home country often comes after a peace, security, and opportunity have turned to violence, a lack of essential resources, threats of danger, and traumatizing experiences. For refugees fleeing to Cyprus and the Greek island of Lesbos, living conditions continue to be challenging.

With so many people arriving, government systems are strained and unreliable. Many landlords prefer not to rent to refugees, and unstable housing means refugees are unable to collect government benefits towards food or living expenses. Basics necessities are difficult to attain, and displaced people struggle to maintain a sense of dignity.

What can be done to help?

All4Aid's care centers, in partnership with CBM, provide essential services like laundry, showers, hygiene supplies, and food. They also offer sewing machines and a free clothing shop, allowing visitors to choose with dignity. Since many are unable to work, the centers create spaces for socializing, fostering community, and building emotional resilience.

CRISIS
RESPONSE

CRISIS
RESPONSE

A Hopeful Story

An 18-year-old refugee known as Junior is alone in Cyprus and has had trouble accessing basic services and education.

But there is hope. Staff from CBM's partner, All4Aid, have walked alongside him, helping to navigate the difficulties associated with finding stable housing. Now Junior is a community volunteer actively involved in these various programs.

Junior says: "I was thinking just about me, my needs, and my problems, but having the support from All4Aid helped me to think about other people, to pray for them, and to offer my help to those who are in need. To me, this project means practicing what Jesus asks us to do as his followers: sharing love, hope, and encouragement to all people around us. My hope for the future is to be able to fulfill my education, become a doctor, and offer my help to those who are in need."

Give a Gift of Hope

Your gift supports a relational ministry approach for the most vulnerable, providing more dignified access to essential needs. This results in an improved quality of life, positive relationships with refugee families, refugees' empowerment and increased self-confidence, and stronger communities.

To share your gift of hope today, visit
cbmin.org/shg24-err

A Hopeful Story

An 18-year-old refugee known as Junior is alone in Cyprus and has had trouble accessing basic services and education.

But there is hope. Staff from CBM's partner, All4Aid, have walked alongside him, helping to navigate the difficulties associated with finding stable housing. Now Junior is a community volunteer actively involved in these various programs.

Junior says: "I was thinking just about me, my needs, and my problems, but having the support from All4Aid helped me to think about other people, to pray for them, and to offer my help to those who are in need. To me, this project means practicing what Jesus asks us to do as his followers: sharing love, hope, and encouragement to all people around us. My hope for the future is to be able to fulfill my education, become a doctor, and offer my help to those who are in need."

Give a Gift of Hope

Your gift supports a relational ministry approach for the most vulnerable, providing more dignified access to essential needs. This results in an improved quality of life, positive relationships with refugee families, refugees' empowerment and increased self-confidence, and stronger communities.

To share your gift of hope today, visit
cbmin.org/shg24-err

