

Calls to Worship

With All that is in Our Hands

With all that is in our hands
May we worship the living God.
Come lay down our hammers
Bring forth our busy agendas.
Present our briefcases and our backpacks
From workspaces and classrooms
From fields, highways and rolling seas
The Father sees our labour
The Spirit is in each day
The Son calls us to follow in work, and play, and praise.

Written by: CBM's Church Engagement Team