

Call to Worship (Responsive)

Leader:

There is one body and one Spirit —

People:

One Lord, one faith, one baptism.

Leader:

From many nations and languages, Christ gathers his Church.

People:

We belong to one another in him.

Leader:

When one part of the body rejoices —

People:

We rejoice together.

Leader:

When one part suffers —

People:

We suffer together.

Leader:

Today we stand in solidarity with sisters and brothers around the world.

People:

Bound not by geography, but by grace.

Leader:

Come, let us worship the God who makes us one.

Call to Worship (Prose)

The Church of Jesus Christ stretches far beyond this room.

It sings in many languages.

It prays through many tears.

It bears witness in many circumstances.

Today we remember who we are —

members of one body,

participants in one mission,

recipients of one abundant grace.

We stand in solidarity with the global Church, not as strangers, but as family.

Come — let us worship the God whose love holds us together and whose Spirit sends us into the world.

Prayer for Offering

God of All Nations,

What we offer today is more than money —
it is an expression of shared life.

Receive these gifts as signs of solidarity with your people serving in many contexts.

May what is given strengthen communities,
equip leaders, and nurture hope.

And as we give, deepen our awareness that we belong to one body.

What blesses one part strengthens us all.

Use these offerings — and use us — for the flourishing of your Church, here and around the world.

In the Strong name of Jesus, who is head of the church, we pray,
Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

God of the Church — in every land and every language,

Today we give thanks that we are part of a global family. Not bound by geography or culture, but joined together in Christ.

We thank you for the churches who walk alongside us in partnership — for pastors and leaders nurtured through shared training, for congregations strengthening their communities through witness and compassion, for believers who embody the good news in word and deed.

We stand in solidarity with them.

Where they labour faithfully in obscurity, sustain them. Where they serve amid instability or conflict, protect them. Where they confront injustice or poverty, grant courage and wisdom. Where disaster has disrupted daily life, bring restoration and hope.

And where your Church is growing — in faith, in resilience, in joy — let us celebrate together.

Teach us, as Canadian Baptists, to live not just as benefactors but as true partners. Free us from subtle pride. Deepen our capacity to listen. Make us attentive to what you are already doing through your people around the world.

As we share resources, prayer, learning, and friendship, form us into a community shaped by humility and generosity. May our solidarity reflect the unity Jesus prayed for — a unity that bears witness to your love.

Build your Church, O Lord.
Strengthen your servants.
And make us faithful together in your mission.

Through Jesus Christ,
Head of the Church and Lord of all,

Amen.

Benediction

Go into the world as members of one body.

Stand with those who rejoice.

Stand with those who suffer.

Stand with those who labour in hope.

May Christ, who breaks down every dividing wall, bind you more closely to his global Church.

May the Spirit enlarge your love beyond every border.
And may the grace of God sustain you as you live in faithful solidarity.

Go in peace.

Amen.
